

Bachelor of Science in Business Economics and Public Policy

A. Required courses (6 credit hours)

ECON E321 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory
ECON E322 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory

B. Elective courses in Economics (9 credit hours)

ECON E323 Urban Economics
ECON E333 International Economics
ECON E340 Labor Economics
ECON E350 Money and Banking

C. Elective courses in School of Business (6 credit hours)

Select any two other non-Econ SoB 300-400 level courses

Bachelor of Arts in Economics

A. Required courses (18 credit hours)

ECON E100 Current Economic Topics
ECON E200 Fundamentals of Economics
ECON E280 Applied Statistics for Business and Economics I
ECON E281 Applied Statistics for Business and Economics II
ECON E321 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory
ECON E322 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory

B. Elective courses in Economics (9 credit hours)

ECON E323 Urban Economics
ECON E333 International Economics
ECON E340 Labor Economics
ECON E350 Money and Banking

C. Other elective courses: (6 credit hours)

Select any two courses from the following:

- in the School of Business: A201, A202; F301, F302, F420; M301, M303, M405; L201, L303; D300, P301
- from outside the School of Business: MATH M215, M216; POLS Y304, SPEA J301; HIST A353

The following courses are recommended for those planning to pursue graduate studies in economics: M215, M216, E470/G450.

The following courses are recommended for those planning to pursue law school: A201, A202, Y304, J301.

Associate of Arts in Economics

See "Graduation Requirements for the Associate of Arts."

Required courses:

ECON E100 Current Economic Topics

ECON E200 Fundamentals of Economics

ECON E321 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory

6 other credits of 300-400 level Economics courses

Requirements for a Minor in Economics (15 credit hours)

ECON E100 Current Economic Topics

ECON E200 Fundamentals of Economics

ECON E321 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory (G409) OR ECON E322 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory (G300)

6 other credits of 300-400 level Economic (E or G) courses