

Academic Reminders

Refund Schedule

The final day to receive a 50 percent refund for dropped classes is Jan. 26. The last day for the 25 percent refund period is Feb. 2. The pass/fail option deadline is Jan. 26.

Bookstore Hours

The following are the IUS Bookstore hours, effective until Jan. 28: 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

Common Experience

Remnant Trust Collection

The IUS Library will be hosting selected materials from the Remnant Trust Collection through April 27. The exhibit features original and first edition historical documents and books. The display is in a locked cabinet on the main floor of the library, but viewers are encouraged to "touch, feel and read the originals." Contact the Reference Desk for more details.

The opening reception for the Collection will be in the IUS Library Jan. 29 at 6 p.m. Light hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Remnant Trust Lecture Series

Lectures related to the Trust are as follows: Professor James Barry will be discussing Thomas Hobbes' The Leviathan and its relevance to citizen participation and engagement in society today in the IUS Library Jan. 29 at 7:30 p.m.

Professor George Harvey will be discussing Plato's Republic and its relevance to citizen participation and engagement in society today in the IUS Library Jan. 30 at 7:30 p.m.

Professor Tom Kotulak will be discussing the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights and their relevance to citizen participation and engagement in society today in the IUS Library Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m.

Professor Tom Kotulak will be discussing the Federalist Papers and their relevance to citizen participation and engagement in society today in the IUS Library Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

Events

Meet the Chancellor

Chancellor Sandra Patterson-Randles will be discussing college plans, financial aid, campus life, admissions and career services with Floyd Central High School students in the IUS Library third floor reception area Jan. 23 at 6:30 p.m. She will meet with Scott and Washington County High School students Jan. 25 at 6:30 p.m.

Botanical Art

The NATS lecture series will be hosting visiting artist and advisor Scott Bennett: Golden Artist Colors. Bennett will present his lecture "Illustrating Carnivorous Plants in Watercolor" in Room 334 of the Life Sciences Building Jan. 25 at 12:15 p.m.

Bennett will be holding a free workshop on how to illustrate carnivorous plants in watercolor. Prior experience with painting is not required. This event will take place in Room 334 of the Life Sciences Building Jan. 26 at 9:30 a.m. For more information and to reserve a seat, contact Douglas Darnowski at ddarnows@ius.edu.

Medallion Leadership Award

IU Southeast students who will be seniors during the 2007-2008 academic year qualify to apply for the Chancellor's Medallion Leadership Award. The deadline to apply is Feb. 15 at noon. Applications are available in the Office of Financial Aid at University Center South. Two awards will be given.

The award is given each year to students who exemplify outstanding leadership in academic, extra-curricular and co-curricular activities. To be eligible for the award, the student must be a resident of the Louisville area and have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3.

Recipients of the Chancellor's Medallion Leadership Award will be recognized at the 2007 Chancellor's Medallion Dinner on Nov. 10 in the Plantation Hall at Huber's Orchard and Winery.

For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid at 941-2246.

A Little Knowledge

Luz Huntington-Moskos from the IUS nursing division will be discussing the healthy development and risk factors Latino adolescents may encounter as they approach adulthood in Room 230 at the IUS Library Jan. 22 at 12:15 p.m. Refreshments will be available.

Non-Traditional Student Aid

The Adult Student Center will have an informal information session on how to obtain scholarships and financial aid in Room 004 of University Center South Jan. 22 and 23 at 12:15 p.m. Work study programs, loans, state aid and satisfactory academic progress will also be discussed.

For more information, call Kimberly Pelle at 941-2650.

SARC Series

Faculty members who received summer faculty fellowships (and students participating in faculty/student summer working groups) will be presenting the results of their research to the IUS community in the Summer Achievements in Research and Creativity series.

This bimonthly series of presentations will take place during the lunch hour every other Wednesday. Faculty, students, and staff are welcome to attend and bring their lunch. Iced tea and cookies will be provided by the Office of the Chancellor.

Mimi McKay from the IUS Nursing Department will be discussing the Multi-disciplinary Forensic Training Project in Room 230 at the IUS Library Jan. 31 from 12:15 p.m. to 1:10 p.m. All IUS faculty, students and staff may attend and bring a bagged lunch. Refreshments and cookies will be served.

Student Program Council

The SPC will have surveys available for students to recommend what kinds of events they would like to see on campus in the Commons Jan. 25 at 12:15 p.m. Hot cocoa will be served.

Piano Recital

Pianist Grace Baugh-Bennett will perform works by Muczynski, Barber, Welcher, and Liebermann at the Stem Concert Hall Jan. 28 at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.

IU Philharmonic Orchestra

The IU Philharmonic Orchestra from the orchestral ensemble of the IU Jacobs School of Music will perform works including Igor Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring and Sergei Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 4, at the Ogle Center Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Admission is free to all IUS faculty, staff and students. Students from any school or university are also admitted free of charge. General admission is $5.

Tales and Scales

Tales and Scales latest show in the Chase Children's Series is the adventure of a young boy looking for his lost sister in a playground at the park. What the boy finds is that he can only rescue her from the explosive percussive Jabberwocky monster.

The event will be at the Ogle Center Feb. 6 through 8 with two shows each day at 10 a.m. and noon. The show is recommended for children grades K through 6. Admission is free but reservations are required.

Composer Doug Lofstrom takes us through battles of heroic horns, dueling drums and hope as the young hero learns to believe in his own abilities to defeat the monsters that are both real and imagined.

Art Exhibition

The Barr Gallery is presenting the IU Southeast Annual Student Juried Exhi-

Pardon the dust

Photo by Brittney M. Hubbard

Construction is still underway in the University Center. For more information about the renovations go to www.ius.edu/uc.

bition through Feb. 2. The exhibition represents the range of studio disciplines offered by the Fine Arts Department. The opening reception is free and open to the public and will be held in the Gallery Jan. 25 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Visiting Models

The Ohio River Bridge Project's models of the new East End and downtown bridges are on display on the third floor of the IUS Library through Feb. 5.

Each model is a three-dimensional display of how the bridges will appear when they are completed.

Temporary Closings

The Student Development Center will be closed Jan. 24 and 25 while they relocate to their new location in University Center South. For more information please contact Doug Denton at jdenton@ius.edu.

The office of Human Resources will be closed while the office is relocated Jan. 22 and 23.

Sports

Men's Basketball

The Grenadiers will play against Asbury College at 7 p.m. on Jan. 25 in the Activities Building. For more information, please call 941-2432.

Men's Basketball

The Grenadiers will play against IU Northwest on Jan. 27 at 1 p.m. in the Activities Building. For more information, please call 941-2432.

5 on 5 Basketball

IUS Athletics and Intramurals presents the 5 on 5 Basketball League. Participation is free to all IUS students, faculty and staff, and is $100 per team and $10 per individual for non-IUS participants. The games will be held in the Activities Building every Sunday at noon beginning Jan. 28. The season ends March 10. For more information contact Perry Brown at pjb@ius.edu.

Wiffle Ball Tournament

The men's and women's wiffle ball tournament will continue in the Activities Building Jan. 28 at 1 p.m.

The event is free to all IUS students, faculty and staff, and $50 for non-IUS participants.

Local Events

Second Hand Smoke

The Clark and Floyd County Tobacco Prevention and Cessation Coalitions will present the community health awareness program "Secondhand Nose and other Effects of Secondhand Smoke" at the Clarksville Branch Library on Jan. 30 from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The presentation will cover the six major findings of the Surgeon General's report and steps to take for protecting families from second hand smoke. Free expired breath carbon monoxide tests will be available to attendees.

For more information in Clark County, call 283-2649. In Floyd County, call 923-3400.

Elevator Plays

The Specific Gravity Ensemble presents Elevator Plays: Ascent-Descent/ Assent-Dissent in the Starks Building at 4th Street Live Jan. 26 and 27, and Feb. 2 and 3 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $8. For reservations call 384-2743.

This is the premier event of the Ensemble, a non-profit theater company. "Elevator Plays" is a showcase of 24 original plays that are under two minutes each and written to be performed in small spaces. The plays will be performed within the confines of four elevator cars.

A Brahms Celebration

The Kentucky Center and The Fund for the Arts in collaboration with the Gheens

Foundation is celebrating their kick-off week with an all Brahms celebration.

The event will be in the Brown Theatre Jan. 28 at 3 p.m. The concert is free and open to the public. No tickets are required.

The program will include Academic Festival Overture, Double Concerto for violin and cello in A Minor Op. 102 with Tai Murray and Mihai Marica, Hungarian Dance No. 4 in F# Minor and Hungarian Dance No. 5 in G Minor.

For more information call 502-562-0111.

Divorce Southern Style

The Derby Dinner Playhouse presents Divorce Southern Style through Feb. 18.

Divorced for 15 years and running out of money, Eleanor decides that her best bet is to reconcile with her former husband and lure him back under the pretense that their daughter is getting married.

Tickets are $37 each. Call 288-8281 for reservations.

Beehive

The Derby Dinner Playhouse presents "Beehive," a high energy musical featuring memorable songs from the '60s.

Reminisce with six wailing women and the guys in the band with songs like "My Boyfriend's Back," "Where the Boys Are," "Proud Mary," "Downtown" and more. Songs featured are by Aretha Franklin, Tina Turner, Connie Francis, The Supremes, Petula Clark, Dusty Springfield and Brenda Lee, and more.

Tickets are $37 each. Call 288-8281 for reservations.

Submissions

Submit information for the What's Happening page by contacting The Horizon at 941-2253 or by e-mail at Horizon@ius.edu. Submit one week in advance.

