Tour China

The IUS Overseas Study program invites students to discover China. The program will take a 16-day tour of China to visit such places as the Great Wall and Qufu (the birth place of Confucius).

Other attractions include coming face-to-face with the famed Terra Cotta Warriors of Xian, climbing the sacred mountain Mt. Tair and visiting the architectural miracles of Shanghai.

The tour will cost an estimated $3,690 and will depart from Louisville on May 27 and return on June 11. Students may be eligible for financial aid and scholarships and can also earn three credit hours. Non-students are also welcome to participate.

Those interested should contact Yu Shen by e-mail, yshen@ius.edu, or by calling 812-941-2533.

Campus Safety Alert

A fugitive wanted in connection with sex crimes has been spotted in the Kentuckiana region.

The IU Southeast campus community is asked to be on alert as the suspect has a girlfriend who lives in New Albany.

David Peter Wheatley is wanted by U.S. Marshals and the Metro Louisville Police Department on warrants for rape and sodomy.

Wheatley, who also goes by the names David Williams and Damien Williams, was recently spotted at the University of Louisville Ekstrom Library.

Wheatley is 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighs about 190 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes. He often tells people he is a former marine or law enforcement officer. He may carry a handgun in a briefcase.

If Wheatley is spotted on campus, please call IU Southeast University Police at 941-2400.
