

The Fine Art of KISSING

Photos by Will Horner, Yasmeen Chaudhry, and Brian Kennedy

A kiss is just a kiss, but Michael Christian has made kissing his special passion. He entertained as well as instructed more than 130 people on the art of kissing in the Multi-Purpose Room on Jan. 29.

FAR LEFT: Michael Christian instructs the crowd on the finer points of kissing. Christian had volunteers demonstrate a variety of kissing techniques.

LEFT: Zach Becher, freshman, and Holly Alcorn, freshman, perform one of the many different kisses presented. Types of kisses included French, electric, phone, and upside-down vacuum.

BELOW: The women fulfill their "fantasy" by attacking their "dentists." Christian had volunteers act out scenarios about kissing.

ABOVE: Michael Christian gets in the thick of a French kiss, as demonstrated by volunteers dressed up as tongues.

RIGHT: Christian describes what's in the minds of the kissers Jeremy Stewart, senior, and Andrea Fogle, freshman.

Far Right: Stewart and Fogle show how the French kiss is performed. The student volunteers had met just before the presentation.

ABOVE: Zach Becher, freshman, shows how to do a neck kiss with Andrea Fogle, freshman. Male volunteers got to demonstrated the neck kiss on all the female volunteers.